

Land-based Algeria

Land-based Algeria

Algeria, the largest country in Africa, spans approximately 2.38 million km², with agriculture playing a pivotal role in its economy. The country's arable land exceeds 7.5 million hectares (World Bank, 2021).

The 1989 Constitution of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria, as amended by the reforms of 1996, lays out basic rights related to land and property.

Algeria is a semi-presidential republic composed of 58 provinces (wilayas) and 1,541 communes. It is a regional power in North Africa and a middle power in global affairs, with the largest military budget in ...

From fertile fields to sustainable practices, our service brings clarity to the intricate ecosystem of Algerian agriculture. Explore interactive visualizations, unlock patterns, and make informed decisions ...

The loss of agricultural land to industrial concentration (agricultural degradation) and ecosystem vulnerability in the eastern part of the Mitidja Plain can be connected to the economic ...

Algeria is currently the largest country in Africa and in the Arab World with a total landmass of 2.38m sq km. Algeria is rich in natural resources but is still largely unexplored.

As part of its agricultural strategy, Algeria has set out to cultivate the desert. Hundreds of thousand hectares of land are now in economically active in ...

This paper provides a general overview of land policies in Algeria since Independence (1962) and identifies current and future key challenges concerning land issues in Algeria.

Arable land (hectares) - Algeria FAO electronic files and web site, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO), publisher: Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO)

Among the products requiring special attention is potatoes, as it is a widely consumed commodity in Algeria. Using remote sensing to detect areas dedicated to potato cultivation becomes a priority.

As part of its agricultural strategy, Algeria has set out to cultivate the desert. Hundreds of thousand hectares of land are now in economically active in the Algerian Sahara. In just a few...

Contact Us

For more information, pricing, or custom network solutions, please contact us:

Website: <https://hashherbcafe.co.za>

Email: hello@hashherbcafe.co.za

Phone: +27 63 814 7295

Address: 15 Galaxy Road, Linbro Business Park, Johannesburg, 2065, South Africa

This document is for informational purposes only. Specifications subject to change without notice.

