

Slovenian Cold Passage Armor

Overview

The current Slovenian Armed Forces are descended from the Territorial Defense of the Republic of Slovenia (Teritorialna Obramba Republike Slovenije; TORS), which was formed in 1968 as a paramilitary complement to the regular army of the former within the territory of. The main objectives of TORS were to support the (JNA) and conduct operations in the event of an.

Slovenian Cold Passage Armor

It is the only original, almost wholly preserved example of a knight's suit of armour in Slovenia. It was tailor-made for a wealthy warrior of noble birth, who fought as a heavily armed cavalryman.

The projection of the restructuring and equipping of the Slovenian armed forces for the ensuing medium-term period is based on the expected growth in defence expenditure.

Slovenian traditional clothing evolved over centuries, shaped by the needs of rural communities and the artistic aspirations of local artisans. These costumes not only provided ...

I. The arms and armour collection in the National Museum of Slovenia II. Life at the restless crossroads: The Slovenian territory during the Middle Ages and the Early Modern Period

The current Slovenian Armed Forces are descended from the Territorial Defense of the Republic of Slovenia (Teritorialna Obramba Republike Slovenije; TORS), which was formed in 1968 as a ...

In 2003, the Slovenian Government abolished conscription and as of July 2004, the Slovenian Armed Forces had been almost completely reorganised into a professional army now based on volunteers.

The new Slovenian Armed Forces winter field equipment set provides all items that provide the soldier with effective protection against weather and environmental factors.

T-55 in Slovenian Service and M-55S. After gaining independence, the Republic of Slovenia inherited two different types of main battle tanks from the disintegrating Yugoslavia. The first was the T-55, an ...

The current Slovenian Armed Forces are descended from the Territorial Defense of the Republic of Slovenia (Teritorialna Obramba Republike Slovenije; TORS), which was formed in 1968 as a paramilitary complement to the regular army of the former Yugoslav within the territory of Slovenia. The main objectives of TORS were to support the Yugoslav People's Army (JNA) and conduct guerrilla operations in the event of an invasion.

The company was formed in 1997, as a small Slovenian company that provided solutions for government organizations in Slovenia, such as the police force and the military.

The vehicles have a good armour and anti-mine protection and a large cargo area which enables the transportation of an EOD team, including their entire equipment. It is equipped with a 7.62 mm ...

Contact Us

For more information, pricing, or custom network solutions, please contact us:

Website: <https://hashherbcafe.co.za>

Email: hello@hashherbcafe.co.za

Phone: +27 63 814 7295

Address: 15 Galaxy Road, Linbro Business Park, Johannesburg, 2065, South Africa

This document is for informational purposes only. Specifications subject to change without notice.

